

MDCPS' DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SCIENCES PRESENTS
BLACK LIVES MATTER THE 50'S, 60'S AND LEADING TO NOW WITH

MARY BETH TINKER

FRIDAY, APRIL 23, 2021
9 a.m. - 12 p.m.

Plaintiff Tinker V. Des Moines, Landmark Student Rights Case, Youth Rights Activist, Humble Servant dialogue will include: Farmville, Claudette Covin, the Birmingham Children's Crusade, Freedom Summer and more....The activism continues.....

AAH Advocates & Social Sciences teachers interested in attending click here to register (Social Studies classes are welcome)

For additional information, email Dr. Sherrilyn Scott, Department of Social Sciences
Supervisor at Sherrilynsconfig@dadschools.net

