Greetings,

It's a pleasure to meet your acquaintance. I know both myself, Dr. Kelley-Brown and the entire planning committee are thrilled and honored Mr. Brooks agreed to join us for our Summer Institute. Ms. Hartman, thank you for the information regarding the materials needed to best represent Mr. Brooks at our event. At this time, could you provide Mr. Brooks' biography and headshot? This information will be used to promote Mr. Brooks on our webpage and social media platforms.

Thank you for providing Ms. Pulido's contact information, and I will reach out directly regarding billing and invoicing.

I will coordinate with Dr. Kelley-Brown and provide more details on talking points and other pertinent information. The earliest our team can meet is next week. Would it be possible to set up a meeting then?

Mat, thank you again for your steadfastness in arranging this exciting opportunity. I look forward to working with you all.

Best regards,

It is very nice to meet the both of you and I look forward to working with you. Please let me know what it is that you will need from me in order to coordinate this virtual appearance of Mr. Brooks as that is what I mostly handle. I am getting ready to leave the office here momentarily to step out for an off-site meeting but I can begin work on this upon my return if you are in need of any photos for promotional material or anything. If you need invoicing or anything that would be directed to Bonita.

Please direct to her all the details and information for billing and invoicing of this. I will then coordinate the scheduling of this with Mr. Brooks if you want to send me any Bullet points of what you would like for him to do and or speak about.

Again, I look forward to working with you on this.

Thanks again Mat for your coordination and your efforts in making this happen.

Hi, Sabrina,

As a K-12 single-school district, we are in a unique situation, and no other district that I have spoken with operates under our parameters, so I am having a hard time finding a school that can serve as a model. Additionally, the issues of bringing students back from COVID have impacted our areas of focus, and pushed the exemplary status push to the back burner.

Here is what we have done so far:

We had a book study using the Django Paris book, Culturally Sustaining Pedagogy; this was an optional book study group, and several teachers across the K-12 faculty chose to participate.

Secondly, we offered a 1-credit African American History Class for high school students for the first time. I chose to teach this class myself, to demonstrate how important I feel it is that this content is shared. I will be teaching the class again in the spring of 2023. My goal is for this class to be offered each semester and then eventually for this to be a required elective for all high school students. There are fiscal implications for the latter.

My next planned steps are to put together an African American History Task Force with representation from elementary, middle, and high school to audit the current embeddedness of African American History across the K-12 curriculum and then do a gap analysis of where we are falling short.

We are moving more slowly than I had hoped, but without a district office and district staff to help with the work, we have lacked capacity to move any more quickly.

Please reach out with any additional questions.

Best,
Carrie

Mrs. Shade,

I hope you are doing well and thank you so much for reaching out. We recently presented to our School Board and gained their support. Our next step is to assemble our workgroup who will meet over the course of next year to begin our journey and planning to towards exemplary status. We will be setting meeting dates in the next few weeks and plan to begin meeting in August. Our thought is that we would be ready to apply at the end of the 23-24 school year. We will have a more concrete timeline and plan in the coming months. I hope the helps, please let us know if you need any additional information or have any recommendations for adjustments to our initial plans.

Thank you,

Hi Sabrina,

I am well, thank you. I hope this email finds you well.

We have recently resumed our efforts to pursue exemplary status. Due to other matters of district priority, most of the concerted work as a task force was on hold; however, we have continued our efforts of elevating African American history through other opportunities that I believe can be incorporated into meeting the Exemplary Status Criteria. I will be connecting with Stephanie Oliver (Duval Schools) soon and we have a team of employees registering for your 2022 Virtual Summer Institute. I anticipate a more detailed update for you in Fall 2022.

Good morning, Ms. Shade –

Thank you for your email and congratulations on your new assignment. Walton County School District in the Panhandle is actively working toward Exemplary Status. We are doing this with small, but important steps by creating buy-in. I have also been working with Dr. Austin in these endeavors. We have been actively pursuing University Partnership with the University of West Florida and as of January 2022, believe we have a solid foothold with an active group to provide Professional Development for our District teachers, outreach campaigns and the like; this is still in infancy stages and we are working on finalizing dates.

Thanks you for reaching out!

Subject: African American History Task Force - Exemplary Status

Caution: External Email (warning: Ignore email claims to be on a safe senders list)

Greetings,

I hope this email finds each of you well. My name is Sabrina Shade, and I'm the new Program Coordinator for the African American History Task Force. Last year, the Task Force hosted a webinar for districts interested in seeking Exemplary Status. The webinar was a great success, with several districts attending. I'm happy to report we have a couple of districts that are in the process of obtaining Exemplary Status. The Task Force would like to increase that number. I want to follow up with you to establish where your districts are in their pursuit of obtaining Exemplary Status. Please email with updates, questions, and or concerns.
I look forward to hearing from all of you.

If you receive this email and are no longer serving in this capacity, could you please share to who I may direct this email too?

Kind regards,

Subject: Re: Exemplary School Districts Information

Good afternoon everyone,

Happy Friday!

Thank you to those who have responded with the contact information and invoices for the support funding for our Exemplary School Districts. I provided language for Marion County to generate their invoice and will provide it here to share with your curriculum and instruction department through this process. If you can, please email the contact information or have them directly reach out to me. Either way will be fine.

A clearer statement for the intended funding:

The African American History Task Force has allotted funding for $500 for our Exemplary School Districts for this grant cycle, 21-22. To proceed with the disbursement of this funding, I will need an invoice from your department. The end of our fiscal year is next month, so we are requesting the return of invoices as soon as you can so we can issue this funding.

The purpose of the funding is to offer continuing support for our Exemplary School Districts in maintaining and expanding their

Application
For Exemplary Status

Mr. Eric Cummings, Board Chair, District 3
Marion County School Board
Marion County Public Schools
1614 E Fort King Street
Ocala, Florida 34471-2599

Dear Mr. Eric Cummings, Board Chair

I write this letter to affirm that Marion County School District has implemented a Comprehensive Plan for the Infusion of African and African American history into the scope and sequence of the District's Curriculum. The concerted efforts of the School District have resulted in carrying out of the mandate of F.S. 233.061(1)(h), 1994, as amended by F.S.1003.42(2)(h),2002 and 2020 that requires Marion County School District to teach:

"...efficiently and faithfully, using the books and materials required that meet the highest standards for professionalism and historic accuracy, following the prescribed courses of study, and employing approved methods of instruction..."

Additionally, F.S. 1003.42 (2) (h) (1994, 2002, and 2020) states that school districts shall teach as part of required instruction:

"The History of African Americans, including the history of African peoples before the political conflicts that led to the development of slavery, the passage to America, the enslavement experience, abolition, and the contributions of African Americans to society."

The review and analysis of the extent to which the District has met the Six Criteria as an "Exemplary District for Teaching African and African American History" indicates that the Marion County School District has met in full or in part the following six criteria to be recommended as an "Exemplary School District," namely:

- 1. School Board approval of the African and African American history Initiative.
- 2. Evidence of Structural Professional Development.
- 3. African and African American studies curriculum.
- 4. Structured Teaching of the African and African American History Curriculum.
- 5. University and School collaboration.
- 6. Parent and Community Partnerships.

The specific analysis and rating of each criterion has been presented to the School District.

Therefore, I affirm that Marion County School District has implemented its "Comprehensive Plan" for the teaching of the African and African American History Curriculum. I also intend to recommend to the Commissioner of Education's African American History Task Force upon its review of this application, that Marion County School District be added to the list of Exemplary School Districts that "efficiently and faithfully" teach the African and African American History Curriculum.

The successful completion of Phase I of the "Comprehensive Plan" has resulted in the development of curriculum units, lesson plans, and curriculum frameworks for teaching African and African American History and the training of school administrators including principals, assistant principals and other educators and the hosting of a website with web access that brings the curriculum into every classroom and school.. The next step in Phase II is to continue the refinement of the curriculum, develop additional units by grade level, implement staff development of administrators and teachers, market the curriculum on the website and among the diverse community partners and groups, and implement a method for monitoring the instructional staff who, "teach efficiently and faithfully, using the books and material that meet the highest standards for professionalism and historic accuracy, following the prescribed courses of study and employing approved methods of instruction."

Congratulations are in order for you, Rev Eric Cummings and all member of the School Board whose active oversight ensured the completion of the six criteria. Dr.Diane Gullett, Superintendent and Lindsey Barber, Project Coordinator/Social Studies Program Specialist who was tasked with the specific tasks needed to complete the six criteria. I wish to thank Mrs. Margaret Talbert-Irving, Chief Academic Officer, the principals and Assistant Principals who willingly participated in the staff development sessions, other district staff who assisted in the process each month, the dynamic and professional teachers and members of the Curriculum Writing Team, Mr. Whitfield Jenkins, Community Advocate, Mr. Frank Rasbury, Chair and members of the District' Community Advisory committee on African and African American History, and educators, consultants and community representatives whose input and support of the curriculum were invaluable.

Good morning all,

Happy Friday! 😊

I hope everyone's week has gone well. A few things - Cindy has answered the call and provided us with an updated flier with embedded links to our website and registration page. Thank you, Cindy! Please feel free to share far and wide.

Recapturing last week, we adjusted the time limits of presentations and recast certain information on the schedule. Next meeting, we will discuss book selections during our giveaways, keynote speaker's topics, and other discussion items. Thank you one and all for your passion and dedicated hard work. We are here because of you. Great job, everyone!

Let me know if you have any questions. Have a great day and a wonderful weekend! 😊

Dear Mr. Brooks,

On behalf of the Commissioner of Education's African American History Task Force, thank you for taking the time out of your busy schedule to participate in this year's summer institute. Your presentation was filled with invaluable information, and the participants' responses were uplifted, engaged, and empowered by your message. After our event, many felt rekindled in their role in the infusion of Florida Statute 1003.42(2)(h) in the K-12 curriculum.

As a small token of our appreciation for having you as our 2022 Summer Institute keynote speaker, we would like to gift you one of the featured books from this year's event.

I already have your physical address and will use it to ship the book. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Again, thank you, and have a great and safe summer!
