

DCPS BLACK HISTORY MONTH CONTEST 2025

LIFTING EVERY VOICE:

“AMPLIFYING STORIES OF STRENGTH, UNITY, AND CHANGE”

Contest Rules and Categories:

Students can research key people and/or events in African American History. Students can focus on local, state, or national history. In their project, students should provide an explanation of how their person or event is connected to the theme. Rubrics are attached that will be used to judge the projects.

Pre-K -5th

Students and teachers are encouraged to work together to decorate their classroom doors or bulletin boards. Each door/bulletin board should correspond to the Black History Month theme. A rubric has been provided below to help judge the doors/bulletin boards. The Social Studies department will announce the winners on February 26th. There will be a winner for elementary, middle, and high school.

Projects are due via email to brothersj@duvalschools.org no later than 4 pm on February 14. Winners will be announced on February 26.
